1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS & AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION.

3 Plaintiff Retina Associates Medical Group, Inc. (“Plaintiff” or “Class
4 Representative”), individually and on behalf of the “Settlement Class” (as defined 5 below), submits this motion for preliminary approval of a proposed settlement 6 (“Settlement”) of this action (“Litigation”) and certification of the proposed 7 Settlement Class. Defendant Keeler Instruments, Inc. (“Keeler” or “Defendant”) 8 does not oppose Plaintiff’s motion. (Plaintiff and Defendant shall collectively be 9 referred to as the “Parties”). The terms of the Settlement are set forth in the 10 Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or “Settlement”),¹ Attached hereto as Exhibit 11 “A”. See Declaration of Seth Lehrman (“Lehrman Decl.”), ¶ 32, Ex. B, and 12 Declaration of Ronald J. Eisenberg (“Eisenberg Decl.”), Ex. C.

13 The proposed Settlement resulted from the Parties’ participation in an all-14 day mediation session before Bennett G. Picker and subsequent settlement 15 discussions. The Settlement provides for a real financial benefit to the Class 16 Members. The Settlement Class, totaling 5,581, consists of all persons or business 17 entities in the United States who were sent an unsolicited telephone facsimile 18 message of material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any 19 property, goods, or services by or on behalf of Keeler on or after August 3, 2014 20 (“Class Period”).

21 The compromise Settlement reached with the guidance of the mediator will 22 create a Settlement Fund of $310,000, also called “Settlement Benefits,” to be 23 established by Keeler. The amount of the Settlement Fund shall not be reduced as 24 a result of any member of the Settlement Class electing to opt out or be excluded 25 from the Settlement or for any other reason. The Settlement Fund will pay for a 26 Settlement Administrator, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC (“KCC”), which

27 _____
28 ¹ Unless otherwise specified, capitalized terms used in this memorandum are intended to have the same meaning ascribed to those terms in the Agreement.

1 will be responsible for providing notice to the Settlement Class, providing notice of 2 this proposed settlement under 28 U.S.C. § 1715 (“Class Action Fairness Act” or 3 “CAFA”), providing and disbursing settlement checks to Class Members who 4 submit a claim form and who do not opt-out, creating and maintaining a Settlement 5 Website, maintaining a toll-free telephone number, preparing an Opt-Out List, 6 preparing a list of persons submitting objections to the settlement, and acting as a 7 liaison between Class Members and the Parties regarding the settlement.
8 Settlement members who submit a Valid Claim Form and do not opt-out will 9 receive by check a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund (after deduction of 10 Settlement Administration Costs, attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs to Class 11 Counsel, as approved by the Court, a Class Representative Award, if any, to the 12 Representative Plaintiff), and any cy pres distribution. The Representative 13 Plaintiff will receive an incentive payment of $5,000 (subject to Court approval)
14 for bringing and litigating this action. Class Counsel will request an attorneys’ fee 15 award of up to $77,500 (i.e., 25% of the $310,000 Settlement Fund) and litigation
16 costs and expenses, subject to Court approval, to be paid out of the Settlement 17 Fund. Any unclaimed funds from uncashed settlement checks, including 18 settlement checks to Class Members who submit Valid Claim Forms but whose 19 current valid addresses could not be determined shall be delivered in equal parts to 20 cy pres recipients Hoag Hospital Foundation and Himalayan Cataract Project, 21 Inc.,² or any other cy pres recipient selected by the Parties and approved by the 22 Court. This cy pres payments from the Settlement Fund will be after all settlement 23 costs and direct payments to the Settlement Class are paid.

24 In consideration for the Settlement Fund, Plaintiff, on behalf of the proposed 25 Settlement Class (“Class”), will dismiss the Litigation and release and discharge 26 Keeler and other Released Parties from all claims relating to the Litigation.

27 While Plaintiff is confident of a favorable determination on the merits, it has 28 ² Both entities are 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations.

1 determined that the proposed Settlement provides significant benefits to the 2 Settlement Class and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class. Plaintiff also 3 believes that the Settlement is appropriate because Plaintiff recognizes the expense
4 and amount of time required to continue to pursue the Litigation, the uncertainty, 5 risk, and difficulties of proof inherent in prosecuting such claims, and the 6 challenges of collecting a judgment. Similarly, as evidenced by the Agreement, 7 Keeler believes that it has substantial and meritorious defenses to Plaintiff's 8 claims, but has determined that it is desirable to settle the Litigation on the terms 9 set forth in the Agreement.

10 Because Plaintiff believes that the proposed Settlement satisfies all of the 11 criteria for preliminary approval, it seeks an order preliminarily approving the 12 proposed Settlement, provisionally certifying the Settlement Class under Federal 13 Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3) ("Rule 23(b)(3)") for settlement purposes, 14 directing dissemination of Class Notice, and scheduling a Final Approval Hearing.

15 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS.

16 A. Factual background.

17 Keeler is a manufacturer of ophthalmic instruments and also sells 18 ophthalmic medication. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 25.) It maintains a website with 19 products advertised. (Id. ¶ 25.) During the Class Period, Keeler sent to telephone 20 facsimile machines 5,581 unsolicited advertisements without proper opt-out 21 notices in connection with its marketing campaigns. (Id. ¶ 26.) Plaintiff alleged 22 that Keeler violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227
23 ("TCPA"), by sending to Plaintiff and the Class's telephone facsimile machines 24 unsolicited advertisements that lacked proper opt-out notices. (Doc. 17 at 3 ¶¶ 12, 25 15, 20.) Plaintiff contend that it and the Class are entitled to statutory damages 26 under the TCPA. Keeler has vigorously denies that it violated the TCPA, and 27 pleaded seventeen affirmative defenses. (Doc. 20 ¶¶ 25, 41-57.)

28

1 B. Proceedings to date.

2 1. Litigation.

3 On August 3, 2018, after receiving a fax advertising 3mL eye drops, Plaintiff
4 filed a Class Action Junk-Fax Complaint, alleging both non-willful and willful
5 violations of the TCPA based on unsolicited facsimile advertisements. (Docs. 1 & 6 1-1.) Plaintiff seeks $500 per non-willful violation and $1,500 for each knowing 7 or willful violation, as well as injunctive relief. (Doc. 1 at 10.) Plaintiff's claim 8 was brought on behalf of a class of individuals who allegedly received from Keeler 9 unsolicited facsimile advertisements. (Doc. 1.) The Parties stipulated to extend 10 the time for Keeler to respond to the complaint to for Plaintiff to move for class 11 certification. (Doc. 10.) Keeler then moved to strike Plaintiff's class allegations.
12 (Docs. 13, 13-1.) Before Keeler's motion to strike was adjudicated, Plaintiff 13 amended its complaint. (Doc. 17.) Keeler answered the amended complaint and 14 pleaded seventeen affirmative defenses. (Doc. 20.) The Parties submitted a joint 15 proposed scheduling plan. (Doc. 21.) They also made their initial disclosures. On 16 December 13, 2018, Plaintiff served a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice on 17 Defendant. The Parties served each other with written discovery requests. The 18 parties produced documents responsive to their respective requests. On February 19 13, 2019, Plaintiff's counsel sent Defendant's counsel a written request for a pre-20 filing conference concerning Defendant's document production. Thereafter the 21 parties conferred and Defendant supplemented its production to address the issues 22 raised by Plaintiff. On February 22, 2019, the Court entered a Scheduling Order 23 and referred the case to private mediation. (Doc. 22 ¶ 5.) The Parties stipulated to 24 a protective order governing discovery, and the Court granted the stipulation.
25 (Docs. 24, 30.) (Lehrman Decl. ¶¶ 21-22.)

26 2. Mediation.

27 The Parties agreed to all-day mediation in Philadelphia, where Keeler is 28 located. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 23.) They attended all-day mediation with an

1 experienced mediator, Bennett G. Picker, on April 23, 2019. (Id.) Mediation was 2 a success, but the Parties engaged in continued negotiations in order to agree to 3 the Settlement. (Id.) As set forth below, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve 4 the Settlement.

5 C. Statement of Facts.

6 1. The Class.

7 a. The Class definition.

8 The “Class” is defined in the Agreement as follows:

9 all persons or business entities in the United States who from August 10 3, 2014, until the date of preliminary approval were sent an 11 unsolicited telephone facsimile message of material advertising the 12 commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services by or on behalf of Defendant.

13 (Agreement § 10.7.)

14 b. Class membership determination.

15 The Class consists of all persons who were sent Keeler’s facsimile 16 advertisements during Class Period, as stated above. (Id.) Based on documents 17 produced by Keeler in discovery, the number of successful fax transmissions is 18 approximately 5,581. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 29.)

19 2. Settlement Payment.

20 Under the Proposed Settlement, Keeler agrees to establish a $310,000
21 Settlement Fund to fund (1) Settlement Administration Costs; (2) attorneys’ fees, 22 costs, and expenses to Class Counsel, as approved by the Court; (3) an incentive 23 award, if any, to the Representative Plaintiff; (4) Class recovery on a pro rata basis 24 up to $1,500 each to Class Members who submit a Valid Claim Form; and (5) any 25 cy pres distribution. (Agreement § 10.35.) The amount of the Settlement Fund 26 shall not be reduced as a result of any members of the Class electing to opt out or 27 be excluded from the Settlement or for any other reason. (Id. § 10.35.2.) 28

1 3. Monetary benefit to Class Members and Class Notice.

2 The Settlement Agreement provides for $310,000 in cash benefits (minus 3 Settlement Administrations Costs, attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses, and any 4 incentive awards) to Class Members on a pro rata basis after the claims period.
5 There are approximately 5,581 Class Members with unique facsimile numbers that 6 received facsimile advertisements from Keeler. The Claims Administrator will 7 provide notice first via First Class U.S. Mail within 20 days of the Preliminary 8 Approval Order. (Id. § 12.2.) Claims Forms will also be available on the 9 Settlement Website and may be submitted online.

10 The Claim Period will be the period of 60 days from the initial mailing of 11 Class Notice to the Class by the Settlement Administrator. (Id. § 10.5.)

12 Class Members who Opt Out, must postmark and mail to the Settlement
13 Administrator a request to opt out before the Objection Deadline, which will be 65 14 days following entry for the Preliminary Approval Order (id. § 12.6); and the 15 deadline to Opt Out and Object will be 60 days after mailing of the Class Notices 16 (id. § 12.7).

17 Class Members who file a Claims Form and do not Opt Out or Object will 18 each receive a pro-rata share of up to $1,500. After Settlement Administration 19 Costs, any attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses to Class Counsel, and any Class 20 Representative Award, it is estimated there will be approximately $190,542 for the 21 Settlement Class to be distributed pro-rata. If each Class Member filed a Claims 22 Form and did not Opt Out or Object, then each one would receive approximately 23 $34. If, more realistically, ten percent of the Class Members (558 members) filed 24 Claims Forms, they would receive approximately $341 each. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 25 34.) The anticipated settlement amount to class members compares favorably to 26 numerous similar TCPA class action settlements which have been approved by 27 courts within the Ninth Circuit and California in particular. Below is a chart of 28

1 similar TCPA class action settlements that have received approval, including the 2 value to each proposed class member for the respective case. (Id. ¶ 34.)

Case and No.	Size of Class	Settlement Amount	Value per Class Member
Robles v. Lucky Brand Dungarees, Inc. Case No. 3:10-cv-04846 (NDCA)	216,000	$9.9 Million	$100 maximum

Arthur v. Sallie Mae, Inc. 10-cv-0198 (WDWA)		$24.15 Million	Between $20 and $40

4. Scope of Release.

All Class Members who do not request exclusion will be deemed to have release any claim against the Released Parties arising out of unsolicited facsimile advertisements sent by or on behalf of Keeler to telephone facsimile machines during the Class Period. (Agreement §§ 18.1, 18.4). The release of claims does not extend to claims beyond those that related specifically to conduct in the pleadings, i.e. the transmission of Keeler's facsimile advertisements.

5. Opportunity to opt out and object.

Class Members who Opt Out, must postmark and mail to the Settlement Administrator a request to opt out before the Objection Deadline, which will be 65 days following entry for the Preliminary Approval Order (Agreement § 12.6); and

1 the deadline to Opt Out and Object will be 60 days after mailing of the Class
2 Notices (id. §§ 12.1, 12.2, 12.6, 12.7).

3 Any Class Member who does not opt out and objects to the proposed 4 settlement must also mail its objections to the Court. (Id. § 12.7.)

5 6. Payment of Notice and Administrative Costs.

6 Within 14 days of the Final Approval Date, Keeler will pay $310,000 into 7 an escrow account held by the Settlement Administrator. (Agreement §§ 15.2, 17) 8 The Settlement Administrator will use these funds to administer all costs of the 9 settlement, including providing Class Notice, proving CAFA notice, maintaining 10 the website and toll-free number and arranging for payments to Class Members.
11 The funds shall also be used to cover any Attorneys' Fee Award to Class Counsel
12 and a Class Representative Award to Plaintiff. (Id. § 10.35, 13.5, 13.6, 17.)

13 7. Application for a Class Representative Award.

14 Class Counsel will request a Class Representative Award of $5,000 for 15 Representative Plaintiff. The Settlement Agreement, however, contains no “clear-16 sailing” provision as to an award. (Agreement § 13.6.)

17 District Courts in California have opined that in many cases, an incentive 18 award of $5,000 is presumptively reasonable. See Bellinghausen v. Tractor 19 Supply Co., 306 F.R.D. 245, 266-67 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 20, 2015) (finding that 20 $5,000 payment is presumptively reasonable); In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust 21 Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 942-43 (9th Cir. 2015) (finding that district court did not 22 abuse its discretion in approving settlement class in antitrust class action, despite 23 objector's contention that the nine class representatives were inadequate because 24 their representatives' awards, at $5,000 each, were larger than the $12 each 25 unnamed class member would receive); In re Toys R Us – Delaware, Inc. – Fair 26 and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 472 (C.D.
27 Cal. Jan. 17, 2014) (finding that request for $5,000 incentive award for each 28 named plaintiff in consumers' Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act action

1 was reasonable; those awards were consistent with the incentive payments courts 2 typically awarded).

3 8. Class Counsels’ application for attorneys’ fees, costs, and 4 expenses.

5 The Settlement Agreement expressly contains no “clear-sailing” provision 6 as to Class Counsel’s compensation, i.e., Keeler has the right to object.
7 (Agreement § 13.5.) Class Counsel state that they intend to apply for an award of 8 attorneys’ fees in the amount of to $77,500 (i.e., 25% of the $310,000 Settlement 9 Fund), plus costs and expenses.

10 9. Cy pres distributions.

11 Based upon Class Counsel’s estimates, so long as at least 127 Class 12 Members submit a Valid Claim Form, there will be no cy pres distributions based 13 on a pro rata increase, because each such Class Member would receive $1,500. If 14 the claims rate is low, e.g., 2.3 percent, then the two cy pres recipients would 15 share a distribution. (Agreement § 10.35.2.) Under the proposed Settlement, 16 there will be a cy pres distribution as to any uncashed checks. (Id. § 15.2.)

17 III. ARGUMENT

18 A. The legal standards for preliminary approval of a class action 19 settlement.

20 “The claims, issues, or defenses of a certified class—or a class proposed to 21 be certified for purposes of settlement—may be settled, voluntarily dismissed, or 22 compromised only with the court’s approval.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). Judicial 23 proceedings under Rule 23 have led to a defined procedure and specific criteria for 24 settlement approval in class action settlements, described in the Manual for 25 Complex Litigation (Fourth) (Fed. Judicial Center 2004) (“Manual”) §§ 21.63, et 26 seq., including preliminary approval, dissemination of notice to class members, 27 and a fairness hearing. Manual, §§ 21.632, 21.633, 21.634. The purpose of the 28 Court’s preliminary evaluation of the settlement is to determine whether it is

1 within the “range of reasonableness” and thus whether notice to the class of the 2 terms and conditions of the settlement, and the scheduling of a formal fairness 3 hearing, are worthwhile. See 4 Herbert B. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions 4 §§ 11.25, et seq., and § 13.64 (4th ed. 2002 and Supp. 2004) (“Newberg”). The 5 Court is not required to undertake an in-depth consideration of the relevant factors 6 for final approval. Instead, the “judge must make a preliminary determination on 7 the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement terms and must direct 8 the preparation of notice of the certification, proposed settlement, and date of the 9 final fairness hearing.” Manual, § 21.632 (4th ed. 2004).

10 As a matter of public policy, settlement is a strongly favored method for 11 resolving disputes. See Utility Reform Project v. Bonneville Power Admin., 869 12 F.2d 437, 443 (9th Cir. 1989). This is especially true in class actions such as this.
13 See Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615 (9th Cir. 1982). As a 14 result, courts should exercise their discretion to approve settlements “in recognition 15 of the policy encouraging settlement of disputed claims.” In re Prudential Sec. Inc.
16 Ltd. Partnerships Litig., 163 F.R.D. 200, 209 (S.D.N.Y. 1995). To make the 17 preliminary fairness determination, courts may consider several relevant factors, 18 including “the strength of the plaintiff’s case; the risk, expense, complexity, and 19 likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status 20 through trial; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed 21 and the stage of the proceedings; [and] the experience and views of counsel.” See 22 Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998) (“Hanlon”).
23 Furthermore, courts must give “proper deference to the private consensual decision 24 of the parties,” since “the court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private 25 consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited 26 to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the 27 product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 28

1 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all 2 concerned.” Id. at 1027.

3 Preliminary approval does not require the Court to make a final 4 determination that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that 5 decision is made only at the final approval stage, after notice of the settlement has 6 been given to the class members and they have had an opportunity to voice their 7 views of the settlement or to exclude themselves from the settlement. See 5 James 8 Wm. Moore, Moore’s Federal Practice – Civil § 23.165[3] (3d ed.). Thus, in 9 considering a potential settlement, the Court need not reach any ultimate 10 conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 11 West Va. v. Chas. Pfizer & Co., 440 F.2d 1079, 1086 (2d Cir. 1971), and need not 12 engage in a trial on the merits, Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm’n, 688 13 F.2d at 625. Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so 14 that “the proposed settlement . . . may be submitted to members of the prospective 15 class for their acceptance or rejection.” Philadelphia Hous. Auth. v. Am. Radiator 16 & Standard Sanitary Corp., 323 F. Supp. 364, 372 (E.D. Pa. 1970).

17 Preliminary approval of the settlement should be granted if, as here, there 18 are no “reservations about the settlement, such as unduly preferential treatment of 19 class representatives or segments of the class, inadequate compensation or harms 20 to the classes, the need for subclasses, or excessive compensation for attorneys.” 21 Manual for Complex Litigation § 21.632, at 321 (4th ed. 2004).

22 Furthermore, the opinion of experienced counsel supporting the settlement 23 is entitled to considerable weight. See, e.g., Kirkorian v. Borelli, 695 F.Supp. 446 24 (N.D. Cal. 1988) (opinion of experienced counsel carries significant weight in the 25 court’s determination of the reasonableness of the settlement); Boyd v. Bechtel 26 Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979) (recommendations of plaintiffs’ 27 counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness).

1 The decision to approve or reject a proposed settlement “is committed to the 2 sound discretion of the trial judge.” See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. This discretion 3 is to be exercised “in light of the strong judicial policy that favors settlements, 4 particularly where complex class action litigation is concerned,” which minimizes 5 substantial litigation expenses for both sides and conserves judicial resources. See 6 Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1238 (9th Cir. 1998) (quotations 7 omitted).

8 Based on these standards, Plaintiff submits that, for the reasons detailed 9 below, the Court should preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement as fair, 10 reasonable, and adequate.

11 B. Liability is highly contested and both sides face significant 12 challenges in litigating this case.

13 Keeler has vigorously contested the claims asserted by Plaintiff in this 14 Litigation. Moreover, Keeler maintained that Plaintiff’s claims could be not 15 certified as a class action if this case were to proceed in litigation. Keeler 16 contended, among other alleged deficiencies, that Plaintiff’s proposed class is not 17 ascertainable, that individual issues predominate over any common ones, and that 18 a class action would be neither superior nor manageable. Keeler has raised 19 seventeen affirmative defenses, including consent, a contention that the TCPA 20 does not apply to faxes received through computer programs, failure to “opt opt” 21 of receiving facsimile transmissions, and lack of standing. (Doc. 20 ¶¶ 41-57.)

22 In considering the Settlement, Plaintiff and Class Counsel carefully 23 balanced the risks of continuing to engage in protracted and contentious litigation, 24 against the benefits to the Class. As a result, Class Counsel support the Settlement 25 and seek its preliminary approval. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 36.)

26 While Keeler believes that it has strong and meritorious defenses not only 27 to the action as a whole, but also as to class certification and the amount of 28

1 damages sought, Keeler recognizes that if a class were certified, the damages
2 could be significantly higher than the settlement amount. (Id. ¶ 37.)

3 The negotiated Settlement reflects a compromise between avoiding that risk 4 and the risk that the class might not recover. Because of the costs, risks to both 5 sides, and delays of continued litigation and potential appeals, the Settlement 6 presents a fair and reasonable alternative to continuing to pursue the Litigation.

7 C. Defendant’s agreement to finance the common benefit fund
8 provides a fair and substantial benefit to the Class.

9 As set forth above, Keeler has agreed to pay $310,000 to fund the 10 settlement, which includes notice and claims administration costs, creating and 11 maintaining a Settlement Website and toll-free number, providing CAFA notice, 12 any Class Representative Award, and attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses.

13 D. The Settlement was reached through arm’s-length negotiation, 14 without collusion, with the assistance of a mediator.

15 The proposed Settlement is the result of intensive arm’s-length negotiation, 16 including an all-day mediation session before an experienced mediator on April 17 23, 2019. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 38.) With the mediator’s guidance, and working 18 independently thereafter, the Parties reached a proposed resolution. (Id. ¶ 38.)
19 The time and effort spent examining and investigating the claims militate in favor 20 of preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement, as the process strongly 21 indicates that there was no collusion. See In re Wireless Facilities, Inc. Sec. Litig.
22 II, 253 F.R.D. 607, 610 (S.D. Cal. 2008) (“Settlements that follow sufficient 23 discovery and genuine arms-length negotiation are presumed fair.”).

24 E. Experienced counsel have determined that the Settlement is 25 appropriate and fair to the Class.

26 The Parties are represented by counsel experienced in complex class action 27 litigation. (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 39; Eisenberg Decl. ¶¶ 7-8, 11, 23.) Class Counsel 28 have extensive experience in class actions, as well as particular expertise in class

1 actions relating to consumer protection and specifically the TCPA. (Lehrman 2 Decl. ¶ 40.) Class Counsel—who have litigated numerous TCPA class actions—3 believe that under the circumstances, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, 4 and adequate and in the best interests of the Class Members. (Id. ¶ 41.)

5 F. The Court should preliminarily certify the Class for purposes of 6 settlement.

7 Courts have long acknowledged the propriety of class certification for 8 purposes of a class action settlement. See In re Wireless Facilities, 253 F.R.D. at 9 610 (“Parties may settle a class action before class certification and stipulate that a 10 defined class be conditionally certified for settlement purposes”). Certification of 11 a class for settlement purposes requires a determination that certain requirements 12 of Rule 23 are met. Id. As explained below, class certification is appropriate here
13 because the Proposed Settlement meets the requirements of Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) 14 for settlement purposes.

15 G. The proposed Class in the thousands is numerous.

16 Class certification under Rule 23(a)(1) is appropriate where a class contains 17 so many members that joinder of all would be impracticable. “Impracticability 18 does not mean ‘impossibility,’ but only the difficulty or inconvenience of joining 19 all members of the class.” Harris v. Palm Springs Alpine Estates, Inc., 329 F.2d 20 909, 913-14 (9th Cir. 1964) (citation omitted). “[N]umerosity is presumed where 21 the plaintiff class contains forty or more members.” In re Cooper Cos. Inc. Sec.
22 Litig., 254 F.R.D. 628, 634 (C.D. Cal. 2009). Here, the Settlement Class consists of 23 5,581 recipients of Keeler’s facsimile advertisements during the Class Period.
24 (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 30.) Thus, the proposed Class is sufficiently numerous.

25 H. The commonality requirement is satisfied, because common 26 questions of law and fact exist.

27 The commonality requirement is met if there are questions of law and fact 28 common to the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019 (“The existence of shared legal

1 issues with divergent legal factual predicates is sufficient, as is a common core of 2 salient facts coupled with disparate legal remedies within the class.”). Here, for 3 purposes of settlement, the proposed Class Members’ claims stem from the same 4 factual circumstances, specifically the sending of Keeler’s allegedly unsolicited 5 facsimile advertisements without proper opt-out notices during the Class Period.
6 (Lehrman Decl. ¶ 31.)

7 Plaintiff’s claims also present questions of law that are common to all 8 members of the Class for settlement purposes, including (1) whether Keeler’s fax 9 advertisements contained the opt-out notice required by the TCPA; (2) whether 10 Keeler’s fax advertisements violated the TCPA; (3) whether Keeler willfully or 11 knowingly violated the TCPA; and (4) whether statutory damages per facsimile or 12 per violation of the TCPA applies. (Doc. 17 ¶ 31.b.) The Settlement Class 13 Members all seek the same remedy. Under these circumstances, the commonality 14 requirement is satisfied for certifying a settlement class. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 15 1019-20.

16 I. The typicality requirement is met.

17 The typicality requirement is met if the claims of the named representatives 18 are typical of those of the class, though “they need not be substantially identical.” 19 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiff’s claim is typical 20 of the Class because the claims arise from the same factual basis—unsolicited 21 facsimile advertisements—and are based on the same legal theory, i.e., the faxes 22 allegedly violated the TCPA. See Wehner v. Syntex Corp., 117 F.R.D. 641, 644
23 (N.D. Cal. 1987). The Class Representative claims that they received unsolicited 24 fax advertisements from Keeler and that the faxes lacked proper opt-out notices.
25 (Doc. 17 ¶¶ 25-26.) Accordingly, the Class Representative’s claim is typical of 26 those of the Settlement Class. Thus, the typicality requirement is satisfied for 27 purposes of certifying a settlement class.

1 J. The adequacy requirement is satisfied.

2 Rule 23(a)(4) is satisfied if “the representative parties will fairly and 3 adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). The Court 4 must measure the adequacy of representation by two standards: “(1) Do the 5 representative plaintiffs and their counsel have any conflicts of interest with other 6 class members, and (2) will the representative plaintiffs and their counsel 7 prosecute the action vigorously on behalf of the class?” In re Wireless Facilities, 8 253 F.R.D. at 611 (quoting Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 958 (9th Cir.
9 2003)).

10 Plaintiff and Class Counsel have no conflicts of interest with other Class 11 Members because, for purposes of the Settlement, Plaintiff’s claim is typical of 12 those of other Settlement Class Members. In addition, Class Counsel have done 13 work in identifying potential claims in the action and filed suit under the TCPA, 14 which specifically addresses unsolicited faxes. Class Counsel are experienced in 15 handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in 16 the action and have litigated numerous TCPA fax class actions. Through those 17 cases they have gained knowledge of the applicable law. Class Counsel have 18 committed and will commit resources to representing the Class. (Lehrman Decl.
19 ¶¶ 45-46; Eisenberg Decl. ¶¶ 22-23, 27.)

20 Plaintiff and Class Counsel have been prosecuting this litigation vigorously 21 on behalf of the Class. Plaintiff and Class Members share the common goal of 22 protecting and improving privacy rights throughout the nation, and there is no 23 conflict among them. (Lehrman Decl. ¶¶ 47-48; Eisenberg Decl. ¶¶ 24-25.) Class 24 Counsel are qualified to represent the interests of the Class. Rule 23(a)(4) is 25 therefore satisfied for purposes of certifying a settlement class.

1 K. Common questions predominate, sufficient to certify a Class for 2 settlement purposes only.

3 Class certification under Rule 23(b)(3) is appropriate where “questions of 4 law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting 5 only individual members.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The inquiry focuses on 6 whether the class is “sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by 7 representation.” Local Joint Exec. Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las 8 Vegas Sands, Inc., 244 F.3d 1152, 1162 (9th Cir. 2001). Central to this question is 9 “the notion that the adjudication of common issues will help achieve judicial 10 economy.” Zinser v. Accufix Research Inst., Inc., 253 F.3d 1180, 1189 (9th Cir.) 11 (citation omitted), opinion amended on denial of reh’g, 273 F.3d 1266 (9th Cir.
12 2001)

13 Here the central inquiry for purposes of the proposed Settlement is whether 14 Keeler violated the TCPA by sending faxes to Plaintiff and Class Members 15 without permission, whether the faxes sent to Plaintiff and Class Members 16 required an opt-out notice, and whether the fax caused concrete injury. (Doc. 17 at 17 4-7.) “When common questions present a significant aspect of the case and they 18 can be resolved for all members of the class in a single adjudication, there is clear 19 justification for handling the dispute on a representative rather than on an 20 individual basis.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022.

21 L. Class treatment for settlement purposes is superior to individual 22 resolutions.

23 To determine whether the superiority requirements of Rule 23(b)(3) are 24 satisfied, a court must compare a class action with alternative methods for 25 adjudicating the parties’ claims. Lack of a viable alternative to a class action 26 necessarily means that a class action satisfies the superiority requirement. “[I]f a 27 comparable evaluation of other procedures reveals no other realistic possibilities, 28 [the] superiority portion of Rule 23(b)(3) has been satisfied.”

1 Culinary/Bartenders Trust Fund, 244 F.3d at 1163; see also Valentino v. Carter-
2 Wallace, 97 F.3d 1227, 1235-36 (9th Cir. 1996) (“[A] class action is a superior 3 method for managing litigation if no realistic alternative exists”).

4 Consideration of the factors listed in Rule 23(b)(3) supports the conclusion 5 that, for purposes of a settlement class, certification is appropriate. Ordinarily, 6 these factors are (a) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling 7 the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (b) the extent and nature of any 8 litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members 9 of the class; (c) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of 10 the claims in the particular forum; and (d) the difficulties likely to be encountered 11 in the management of a class action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

12 However, when a court reviews a class action settlement, the fourth factor 13 does not apply. In deciding whether to certify a settlement class action, a district 14 court “need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable 15 management problems.” Amchem Prods. Inc. v. Woodward, 521 U.S. 591, 620 16 (1997). “With the settlement in hand, the desirability of concentrating the 17 litigation in one forum is obvious.” Elkins v. Equitable Life Ins. of Iowa, No. Civ 18 A96-296-Civ-T-17B, 1998 WL 133741, at *20 (M.D. Fla. Jan. 27, 1998); see also 19 Strube v. American Equity Inv. Life Ins. Co., 226 F.R.D. 688, 697 (M.D. Fla.
20 2005) (Rule 23(b)(3)(C) and (D) factors are “conceptually irrelevant in the 21 context of settlement”) (citation omitted). Here, the Rule 23(b)(3)(A), (B) and 22 (C) factors all favor class certification:

- 23 • Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to pursue a separate 24 action can opt out of the Settlement.
- 25 • There is no competing litigation regarding claims at issue.
- 26 • Plaintiff believes this forum is appropriate, and Keeler does not 27 oppose the forum.

1 M. The proposed Class Notice is consistent with Rule 23 and the 2 Ninth Circuit requirements and provides adequate notice for 3 claims, objections and opt outs.

4 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) provides that, in any case certified under Rule 23(b)(3), 5 the court must order the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances.” 6 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). “The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, 7 easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the 8 class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member 9 may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the 10 court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the 11 time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class 12 judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B)(i)-(vii).
13 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) does not require “actual notice” or that a notice be “actually 14 received.” Silber v. Mabon, 18 F.3d 1449, 1454 (9th Cir. 1994). Rather, notice 15 must be given in a manner “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to 16 apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an 17 opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & 18 Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950). “Adequate notice is critical to court 19 approval of a class settlement under Rule 23(e).” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1025.

20 Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(1)(B), “[t]he court must direct notice in a reasonable 21 manner to all class members who would be bound by the proposal.” Rule 22 23(c)(2)(B) sets forth requirements as to the content of the notice. The notice 23 must concisely and clearly state in plain, easily understood language (i) the nature 24 of the action; (ii) the definition of the class; (iii) the class claims, issues, or 25 defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through counsel if the 26 member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who 27 requests exclusion, stating when and how members may elect to be excluded; (vi) 28 the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a

1 class judgment on class members under Rule 23(c)(3). Fed. R. Civ. P.
2 23(c)(2)(B).

3 The Settlement Administrator shall disseminate the Class Notice in a form 4 materially consistent with Exhibit A to the Agreement. The Class Notice here
5 satisfies each of the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) above. Further, mailed 6 notice has routinely been held to be adequate notice to a Settlement Class. See
7 Schaffer v. Litton Loan Servicing, LP, No. CV 05-07673 MMM JCX, 2012 WL
8 10274679, at *8 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2012) (approving notice plan where class 9 members were sent postcards that directed them to a settlement website); Lo v.
10 Oxnard European Motors, LLC, No. 11CV1009 JLS MDD, 2012 WL 1932283, at 11 *1 (S.D. Cal. May 29, 2012) (final approval of class settlement using postcard 12 notice and settlement website).

13 Following preliminary approval, Defendant will create and deliver a list of 14 Class Members to Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator. (Agreement § 15 12.1.) The Settlement Administrator will employ reverse telephone look-up 16 procedures to identify the subscriber names and physical addresses associated 17 with the facsimile numbers identified on the Class List. (Id. § 12.3.) The 18 Settlement Administrator will run the names and addresses obtained via this 19 process through the National Change of Address database. (Id. § 12.3.) To the 20 extent any physical address identified through reverse look-up is no longer valid, 21 the Settlement Administrator will send Class Notice to any forwarding address 22 that is provided. (Id. § 12.3.) See generally Barani v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 23 No. 12CV2999-GPC KSC, 2014 WL 1389329, at *10 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 9, 2014)
24 (approving settlement in TCPA class action using reverse lookup to locate class 25 members).

26 The Settlement Administrator will publish a Settlement Website within 27 fourteen days of entry of a Preliminary Approval Order. The Settlement Website 28 will contain the Preliminary Approval Order, Long Form Notice, Settlement

1 Agreement, Claim Form, and Class Counsel’s motion for an award of attorneys’
2 fees and expenses and for a Class Representative Award. (Id. § 12.9.) 3 Accordingly, Settlement Class Members will have sufficient time after 4 dissemination of Class Notice has been completed to opt out of the settlement or 5 object. Cf. Torrasi v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1374-1375 (9th Cir.
6 1993) (31 days is more than sufficient, as Class as a whole had notice adequate to 7 flush out whatever objections might reasonably be related to the settlement) 8 (citing Marshall v. Holiday Magic, Inc., 550 F.2d 1173, 1178 (9th Cir. 1977) 9 (approving timing of notice which was mailed 26 days before the deadline for 10 opting out of the settlement)). Further, the Settlement Website shall be 11 maintained and accessible to permit the online submission of claims and posting 12 of any subsequent notices. (Id. § 12.9.)

13 This notice program—centered on direct-mail notice—was designed to 14 meaningfully reach the largest number of Settlement Class Members possible.
15 Since the faxes at issue were sent within the past few years, mailed notice will 16 likely reach most Settlement Class Members.

17 The concurrent dissemination of the Long Form Class Notice on the 18 Settlement Website, combined with the Class Notice, satisfies the requirements of 19 due process and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

20 The Settlement Administrator shall prepare and file a declaration prior to 21 the Final Approval Hearing certifying that the notice program has been properly 22 administered in accordance with this Agreement, this Court’s Orders, and as 23 described herein.

24 N. The Court should preliminarily certify the Class for purposes of 25 settlement.

26 “[T]wo criteria for determining the adequacy of representation have been 27 recognized. First, the named representatives must appear able to prosecute the 28 action vigorously through qualified counsel, and second, the representatives must

1 not have antagonistic or conflicting interests with the unnamed members of the 2 class.” Lerwill v. Inflight Motion Pictures, Inc., 582 F.2d 507, 512 (9th Cir.
3 1978). The adequacy of representation requirement is met here. For settlement 4 purposes, Class Counsel move for Plaintiff Retina Associates, Inc., to be 5 appointed preliminarily as the Class Representative. Class Counsel request that 6 Seth Lehrman of Edwards Pottinger LLC and Ronald J. Eisenberg of Schultz & 7 Associates LLP preliminarily be appointed as Class Counsel for purposes of the 8 Settlement. Plaintiff’s counsel has extensive experience sufficient to be appointed 9 as Class Counsel. Plaintiff understands the obligations of serving as a class 10 representative, have adequately represented the interests of the putative class, and 11 have retained experienced counsel. Plaintiff has no antagonistic or conflicting 12 interests with the Settlement Class, and all members of the Settlement Class are 13 eligible for the same benefits.

14 O. The Court should appoint Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC, 15 as the Settlement Administrator.

16 The proposed Agreement recommends that the Court appoint Kurtzman 17 Carson Consultants, LLC, to serve as the Settlement Administrator, because that 18 company specializes in providing administrative services in class action litigation, 19 and has extensive experience in administering TCPA class action settlements.
20 (Agreement § 10.34.) Keeler does not oppose this request.

21 P. The Final Approval Hearing should be scheduled

22 The last step in the settlement approval process is the formal fairness or 23 Final Approval Hearing, at which time the Court will hear all evidence and 24 argument, for and against, the proposed Settlement. Plaintiff requests that the 25 Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement and schedule a Final Approval 26 Hearing to be held at least 90 days after the date of entry of the Preliminary 27 Approval Order, in order to allow sufficient time for providing CAFA notice, the 28

1 toll-free number and the Settlement Website, and completion of the period for 2 class members to submit exclusion requests and objections.

3 IV. CONCLUSION

4 For all the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff Retina Associates, Inc., requests that 5 the Court enter an Order preliminarily approving the proposed Settlement and 6 certifying a class for settlement purposes.
